

Headline Hype

Students love sharing their newly created headlines

Students learn how to be concise and identify key points in a topic

Can be done for a variety of topics and with a variety of different stimuli

What's the idea?

- Students fill in or create headlines based on topics they've been studying

How does it benefit students?

- Helps students consolidate knowledge
- Great for synthesis and evaluation of ideas/topics
- Promotes creativity in relation to a variety of topics
- Good for cross curricular literacy

Resources available?

- Yes - follow the QR code or weblink on the back of this card to download a PowerPoint presentation for creating this type of resource

More than one word could be correct!

Read the Headlines and Complete the Blanks

Asia now well developed compared to _____

Africa falls behind rest of world in fight against _____

A typical UK family is _____ times _____ than a typical family from Sub Saharan Africa.

Nigerians living in _____ rises to 61%.

Comparing poverty in the UK to poverty in Africa is not _____

Majority of world's _____ living on less than $1 a day are located in _____

Make your own headlines!

PowerPoint presentation with headline template available at:

<https://www.dropbox.com/sh/inhwcrp7bruydyl/AADvOEHU-XX2xHFPdK-foK9qa?dl=0>

Or just scan the QR code above!

Facts

From 1975 to the year 2000, Africa was the only place where poverty got worse and about 80% of the population suffer from hunger. In addition, about half of Africa's population are affected by water related diseases. Africa's issues with development are shown by the fact that 9 out of 10 of the world's poorest countries are in Africa.