Walk: Write a creative imaginative narrative.

THE OLD TREE.

One day, the heavy, wooden door began to open very slowly I tiptoed through the creaky door it was moldy because it hadn't been changed for 40 years! The birds were pecking at the bark of the tree

• It gave me a bit of a shock

In a blink of an eye I saw scratch marks on the wood

<sup>and when I had a look around I saw</sup> and all of a sudden I see... A old creaky stair case that leads you to a room I thought that I could stay to have <sup>a check around the house</sup> a 5 minute test until I heard a pal getting thrown on the floor every 2 seconds it repeatedly did it again until I opened the door in the corridor I was scared until I saw a

and then stopped

<sup>angrily</sup> beast coming upstairs I hid under the bed rapidly and then I heard "who is in there!" demanded the beast.

I saw a tall <sup>and</sup> not scary beast he <sup>looked as if he was dangerous</sup> I saw this dark man standing in front of the bed he was 7ft tall. I could hear the whistling wind as someone was blowing an old whistle never in my life I saw <sup>I was struck in the house forever. I thought</sup> a beast and someone that is 7ft tall and has scratchy nails that cut!. Over my bed is a old crooked wooden box that I struggle to open while the beast madly walked down the stair case. I thought "I'm going to die" until I had a plan I would lock the door and break the old wooden box however the beast didn't hear me. Then it was gold I did not touch it

I dropped the tools that were in the box until I heard that the beast wasn't coming there was 2 boys knocking on the oak door when the beast didn't open then I went down the

I thought what is the earth beast doing

Stair case and I saw him lying on the floor col
he was not breathing I called the ambulance to help him and then he opened his eyes and saw me in his house and he was wondering what all of the noise was until he said "when he opened the door and the sun hit his eyes and shut the door" then he got sent to cut his long nails, decor his house and send him to the hair dresser then he lived happily with someone taking care of him.

Walt: Write a moving letter from the trenches.

Dear Father & mother

I am so happy to have received your letter.

Para 1
I am sad that I missed you. I've been living in the trenches, all I can hear is the screaming bombs. The trenches are dirty and muddy. While walking in the trenches people have got foot rot and lice that are itchy, it is quite scary living in the war.

Para 2
What is worse sometimes they don't shave or wash. At noon they play card games with their friends until the fighting starts. Some of their friends die forever. It is horrible dying. Rats everywhere were bringing disease everywhere. War is very horrible, I have made the wrong choice.

I miss you hope to write to you again.

~~What is worse sometimes they don't shave or wash. At noon they play card games with their friends until the fighting starts. Some of their friends die forever. It is horrible dying. Rats~~

People give you spare socks for walking in the trenches. Trenches really do smell. It quite hurts your ears of the echoes in the trenches. It hurts because of the bombing and shooting when they fight it gets smoky a bit. It takes years to stop shooting and bombing!

The good times with your friends are taken away from you. The rats carrying disease all around you and the place it's awful. The uncooked food is rotten. Starving, the itchy lice travelling all around your hair. Your nice friends that gave you gifts like cookies and food. Water was not clean. It was dirty. The end of the war will never end till everyone dies, I have made the wrong choice of going to the war. It is horrible living in the war next to the Germans.

.Para 4:

Love
- I would like to come back home.

'Love Samuel.'

You managed to create a really emotive letter which tugged at the emotions.

When creating work such as this, try to really think about how people at that time, and in that place would feel.

• Walt: Write a news paper article related to the viking raiders.

On the 8th June 793 something terrible happened the Monks were murdered by the vikings in Lindisgarne. The vikings terrified people, they attacked the monastery, they melted down the crosses, burned buildings, stole treasures, burned monks, stole gold, drowned monks. They fought using long swords and axes. They nearly killed all the monks and people, when they finished the attack they sailed home with treasures and captives. They were terrified for more raids.

On a normal jureday blood thirsty vikings warriors started arriving on the sandy beaches of Lindisgarne. Viking warriors weren't scared of getting killed. Father Oswald, a monk was walking the beach of Lindisgarne. When he saw a terrifying longship boat he didn't know what it was. "They came from the distance sea as if ran like the wind to hide from the deadly vikings they were shockingly terrified aggressive men who ran up the beach and attacked the people and monks."
