

Ideas for 'bumping' lessons:

1. Move the seating.
2. Change the seating plan frequently.
3. Use/bring in an object or artefact.
4. Stand somewhere different.
5. Don't use your usual resource/technology e.g. don't use any PowerPoint.
6. Write feedback sideways or upside down.
7. Give them a memory aid associated with a picture.
8. Change your display and refer to it.
9. Take them to another part of the school e.g. a statue/painting/corridor
10. Invite another teacher 'expert' in e.g. artwork, history, or for science.
