

CB5 Throwback Revision Quiz

Why are many non-communicable diseases described as multifactorial?	Why can't antibiotics be used to treat HIV?	Name the 3 domains.
Which fossil is older 'Ardi' or 'Lucy'?	Describe two ways a secondary response to a pathogen is different to a primary response?	What is the third stage of developing a new medicine?
If you are said to be 'immune' to a disease, which cells would be present in your blood?	Which two pieces of information do you need to calculate somebody's BMI?	Name the 4 main groups of pathogens?
What is the name of the protein on the surface of a pathogen which marks it as foreign?	What is the name of the enzyme used to seal a gene into a plasmid?	What is a non-communicable disease?

1 point (last lesson)	2 points (last week)	3 points (two weeks ago)	4 points (three weeks ago)	Bonus point - if you can 'uplift' the answer
------------------------------	-----------------------------	---------------------------------	-----------------------------------	---

